

TLC Associates Announces 300 Additional Jobs at its Ted Baldwin Business and Industrial Park Location

Americus, GA, April 18, 2022— TLC Associates, a veteran-owned inbound and outbound call center, announced today the addition of 300 jobs to Americus, Sumter County, at 105 Industrial Drive. According to the company's press release, associates receive paid training, superior pay, exceptional benefits, and an excellent work environment. Job Fair events, including immediate interviews, will be conducted at the site on Wednesday, April 20, from 1-4 p.m.

The Americus Center serves as a centralized office for TLC projects around the country and as a local contact center.

Rusty Warner, Executive Director of the Development Authority, stated, "TLC's founder, Tom Cardella, is again investing in our community! Tom and his management have brought the community renewed energy and refreshing management styles. I personally consider expansions one of the greatest compliments a company can give to a community; we are doing what we should."
